

To create custom color schemes simply open the texture file in your favourite editor and change the colors to your desire.

Changing the primary colors should be enough for most cases.

Feel free to play around with the rest of them if you please.